

Sandart & Partners and Frank Advokatbyrå join forces

Frank, with the partners Linda Landén, Mattias Erdös and Karl Guterstam as well as associates, will join Sandart & Partners on 1 July 2021. Frank's team will further expand and strengthen Sandart & Partner's practice within the media and energy sectors as well as commercial disputes.

It is two well renowned firms that unite their practices.

Sandart & Partners is a business law firm that for more than half a century has represented clients in intellectual property matters within the areas of disputes and commercial contracts. The firm also advises on marketing law, competition law and regulatory matters. Sandart & Partners is continuously ranked as top tier in several international rankings and was recently recognized as follows in Chambers Europe 2021: "Outstanding litigation boutique with market-leading expertise across the IP spectrum".

Over the last 15 years, Frank has established itself as a prominent specialist firm in the areas of dispute resolution as well as IP/media and energy related matters.

Through the merger, Sandart & Partners adds five new lawyers to the firm which will bring the total number of employees to 32.

In a comment, Jonas Näsman, Managing Partner at Sandart & Partners, says:

"We are delighted that Frank's team is joining us as both our firms share the same core values and goals which is a necessity for a merger to be successful. Also, our areas of expertise complement each other's and we will therefore be able to provide our mutual clients with broader and better service."

Mattias Erdös, Managing Partner at Frank Advokatbyrå says:

"We share the same vision and continue to believe in the competitive advantage of being a specialist firm. With the broader platform that this merger creates, we are firmly convinced that we jointly will be able to develop and extend the service to our clients."
